

“International Symposium on Sustainable Reconstruction from Super-Disasters”

1st Session

Experts involved in reconstruction from recent super-disasters such as Great East Japan Earthquake 2011, Haiti Earthquake 2010, Wenchuan Earthquake 2008, Indian Ocean Earthquake and Tsunami 2004, and Great Hanshin-Awaji Earthquake 1995 will discuss sustainable reconstruction.

Opening

Hiroshi Ito, Deputy Chief Executive, Building Research Institute (BRI)

Shigeru Morichi, Director, Policy Research Center, GRIPS

Keynote Speech: Reconstruction from the Great East Japan Earthquake

Dr. Takashi Onishi, The University of Tokyo, Presidency at Science Council of Japan

Explanatory introduction

Dr. Tatsuo Narafu, Senior Advisor, Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)

Presentations on recent super earthquake disasters in the world

- Haiti Earthquake 2010

Mr. Fritz Auplan, Engineer, Haiti Technical Office of Building Rating Direction of Public Works, Ministry of Public Works, Transportation, and Communication, Haiti

- Wenchuan Earthquake 2008

Mr. Wang Zhenyao, Dean, Philanthropy Research Institute, Beijing Normal University and One Foundation, China

- Indian Ocean Earthquake and Tsunami 2004

Mr. Bambang Sudiantmo, Head, Water Supply & Sanitation Training Centre, PU, Indonesia

Overview and features on each earthquake

Dr. Nobuo Hurukawa, Research Coordinator of Building Technology, BRI